

Jewish Women's Theater of South Florida

Corporate Sponsorship Opportunities

Many talented Jewish women experience significant barriers to participating in the performing arts due to Sabbath observance and the prohibition of singing in front of men. The Jewish Women's Theater of South Florida is a new, non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation, which is creating theatrical experiences for these talented Jewish women.

Our second year will showcase the original show It Takes A Woman with more than 30 Jewish women in the cast and crew performing for two thrilling performances at the MARJCC's new, state-of-the-art Alan and Diane Lieberman Theater in North Miami Beach.

More than 700 women will be in attendance between our three shows. Your sponsorship demonstrates your support to Jewish women's creative expression, as well as nurturing and nourishing Jewish talent.

Key sponsors may receive a live 'thank you' prior to the show. Inquire about a custom premiere sponsorship package tailored to your needs.
